*Poem

T.: I want to begin our lesson with the beautiful lines of poetry:

*What is this life if, full of care
We have no time to stand and stare.
No time to stand beneath the boughs
And stare as long as sheep or cows.
No time to see when woods we pass,
Where squirrels hide their nuts in grass
No time to see in broad daylight,
Streams full of stars, like skies at night
No time to turn at Beauty's glance,
And watch her feet how they could dance.
No time to wait till her mouth can
Enrich that smile her eyes began.
A poor life this if, full of care
We have no time to stand and stare.*

W. H. Davis (1871 – 1940)

T: Well, What is the poem about?

Yes, sometimes we don't have time to enjoy the beauty and happiness of the moment. But there is one thing in our life and it is one of the greatest achievements in the history of mankind, which can stop the moment of the beauty, make it immortal. What am I talking about?

Lemon Tree

I

I wonder, I'm sitting here, But nothing, I'm wasting my time.

..... in a boring room

It's just another rainy Sunday afternoon

..... I got nothing to do

I'm hanging around I'm waiting for you

..... ever happens - and

II

driving too far, But nothing, driving too fast, happens, feel so lonely

I'm driving around around in my car

I'm

I'm

I'd like to change my point of view

I I'm waiting for you

..... ever - and I wonder

III

blue sky, turning, turning around, I wonder how, lemon tree, I can see.
..... I wonder
Why yesterday you told me
'bout the blue
And all that I can see is just
A yellow
I'm turning my head up and down
I'm turning turnin gturnin gturning
.....

The Beatles.

British musical group appeared in the 1960s. The principal members were Paul McCartney (in full Sir James Paul McCartney; born June 18, 1942, Liverpool, England), John Lennon (born February 25, 1943, Liverpool), and Ringo Starr (by name of Richard Starkey; born July 7, 1940, Liverpool).

First they performed together in Liverpool in 1957. The group played American rock-and-roll. Throughout the winter and the spring of 1963, the Beatles continued their rise to fame. Those four young men were loved by thousands of people especially girls. A new word "Bitlomania" appeared in the vocabulary. Their songs: pop ballad "Yesterday", hard rock song "Tomorrow Never Knows", folk tune "Norwegian Wood" and many others were extremely popular. They were awarded by the Queen. To great regret of their fans the Beatles parted in 1971. In 1980 a big tragedy happened: John Lennon was killed. Today the Beatles are as popular as they were many years ago.

The Beatles - Yesterday

Yesterday, all my troubles seemed so far away
Now it looks as though they're here to stay
Oh, I believe in yesterday.

Suddenly, I'm not half the man I used to be,
There's a shadow hanging over me.
Oh, yesterday came suddenly.

Why she had to go I don't know she wouldn't say.

I said something wrong, now I long for yesterday.

Yesterday, love was such an easy game to play.
Now I need a place to hide away.
Oh, I believe in yesterday.

Mmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm.
